THE CHINA MAIL.
HONGKONG, FRIDAY, NOV. 21, 1879.

In resuming our remarks upon the last meeting of the Council, it may be noted that the fuss made here and in England about the C. D. O. revenue has resulted in the seeming discovery, at this late date, that the unsavoury agitation, regarding the alleged use of such receipts for the general expenditure, was based in a great measure upon a fiction. It ought not to be forgotten that this discovery originally belongs to Mr. Keswick, who, in his note appended to the C. D. O. Commission (p. 54), thus explained it:—"The returns which have been furnished of Receipts and of Expenditure from 1857 to 1877, both years inclusive, show an average annual excess of revenue of about $3600, which sum, however, would probably entirely disappear, were the Registrar General's Department credited with its full share of incidental expenses in working the Ordinance. It would appear, therefore, that revenue has not been derived in excess of expenditure under the provisions of the Ordinance." The present Colonial Treasurer must have been absent from the Colony when the Governor unearthed this grave irregularity in the administration of the Sir Richard MacDonnell (or somebody else); but it was quite refreshing to note the unconscious way in which Mr. Tonnochy, with the self-assurance of an accurate knowledge of the subject, disposed of the official dust that has been raised here, in Parliament, and in the Colonial Office. Mr. Tonnochy deserves much credit for his independent statement—such speeches have become rare now-a-days—and it must be said, to the credit of His Excellency, that the Governor accepted the unintentional blow with becoming composure of manner. Mr. Keswick must have inwardly enjoyed this spontaneous official corroboration of his views; but then this active unofficial member has a facial power seldom given to ordinary men. There can be no doubt, however, that the reduction of the fines will be a good, in so far as it tends to check the bondage of such unfortunate women. It remains a question, at the same time, whether the health of the Colony—the chief thing aimed at by the C. D. law—

LOCAL AND GENERAL.
The next AMERICAN MAIL may be expected here on or about the 24th inst., by the O. & O. steamer Zelig, which left Yokohama on the 18th inst.

The matinee performance by Messrs Vase and Mrs. Brown in St. Andrew's Hall takes place, we would remind our readers to-morrow, Saturday.

The Hospital ship Mecanes is about to undergo some extensive repairs, including painting and caulking the decks, and the whole of the patients have to-day been removed to Wellington Barracks as a temporary measure.

We have been requested to state that the common Jurors summoned for this Session need not attend again. A Special Jury has been ordered for Bowler's case, and to hear the charge of Conspiracy (the $17,000 case).

Superior Major Grant, A.M.D., proceeds Singapore by the P. and O. mail steamer Kashgar to-morrow. On the arrival of H. M. S. Orontes at that station with the 1st Battalion 8th Buffs from the Cape, 74th Highlanders will go home, after a tour of foreign service extending over a period of twelve years, in Gibraltar, Malta, Hongkong and Singapore. Dr. Grant will take medical charge of the regiment on passage to England.
